Village Manager: Thomas thanked the police department for their recent help with some properties in town which had very long grass. Once the police department communicates with the property owner, they have 10 days to get the lawn mowed. He thanked former Mayor Knapschaefer for the donation of a whiteboard easel for use in the council chambers. He also said the tornado siren near the tennis courts did not go off during the recent tornado warning. He said there was no power in that area and the battery backup failed. He will get the issue resolved as soon as possible.

Mayor: He thanked Buschur for running the last council meeting.
